Notes for ISSAC WONNACOTT:

Curtis from Ann Arbor has written in to inform us of his lineage. His great-greatgrandfather, John, (1806 - 1878) was a shoemaker from the UK who settled in Charlottetown P.E.I. John's eldest son was also named John(1839 - 1933) and inherited his father's business. It is known that there were three other sons. One, Issac (1843-1924) went to Buffalo and worked on the railroad. Issac had five sons and five daughters. The youngest son Silas (1896 - 1972) was the father of Curtis his only son. Curtis has a son, James, who lives in Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

This information has indicated Curtis is descended from the same immigrant John (1806-1878) as Steve who currently lives in P.E.I . and is already one of our group.

Curtis does not have a computer or email.

Steve and Curtis have since both been informed about each other.
