John Wonnacott was born in Shebbear and baptised in St. Michaels Church (1768). His son James was also born & baptised in Shebbear (1802). As a carpenter in the early 1820s he moved to Tiverton to work later becoming a grocer. His son James was born 1829 and went on to become a minister. Little is known of his training but was inducted into the Congregational pastorate at Morley, Leeds in 1854.

Rev. James was to start a family line where there was at least one ordained priest in each generation right up to present day. His son Bryant is mentioned directly above whilst his daughter Kate married Rev. Ernest Beresford-Cooke who was renowned for his work "The Sign of the Cross in the Western Liturgies". published in 1907.

James Wonnacott was the minister at Clifftown Congregational Church in Southend-on-Sea, Essex, England between 1869-1871 whilst he was operating a boys boarding school at Milton Hall, Southend which is listed in 1871 Census.

The Book "James Wonnacott - No Time to Sleep at his Post" (ISBN 0 646 24808 1) deals with the whole life and history of this interesting man and includes many BW photographs and runs to some 150+ pages. It has been written by John Mercer whose wife Phyllis is the great granddaughter of James Returning to England he was curate at St. Michael's, Hackney from 1889 to 1892, at Fulham until 1896, and at St. George's, Enfield Highway, until 1900, when he was appointed Vicar of the last-mentioned parish. He remained in that capacity for four years, and then received the offer of the living of St. Peter's, Edmonton, when it was relinquished by the Revd. E.J. Austin. He died on 11th. November, 1910.

In Singapore there was a boarding house ran by Raffles Institution which closed down in 1887 . Mr C.B. Buckley, a solicitor, took in the boys. He formed a committee consisting of the Bishop, the Archdeacon, the Rev. W.H. Gomes, the Rev. B. Wonnacott and Mr A.L. Donaldson ,who together founded the ST ANDREW'S HOUSE on 15 October 1887.

The institution was originally housed in a rented room in Armenian Street and Mr Bicknell was the Housemaster. The boarders were mainly European and Eurasian boys attending Raffles Institution. St Andrews House history is linked to the School which still operating today (2009) in Singapore and is now situated in Potong Pasir near Toa Payoh.
