Remembrance

Written By Charles Newton Wonacott (1881-1968)

Rev. Kennelly Buckingham Wonacott, my grandfather, died at his home near Quincy, Mo., on December 8, 1899, at the age of 80 years, of diabetes. For many weeks he was a sufferer, yet he bore his suffering with Christian fortitude.

He was born among the mountains of Virginia, August 27, 1819, of English parents. I, Charles Newton Wonacott, was born on my grandfather's birthday, 1881. He was converted at the age of 11 years at a Methodist camp meeting, uniting with the Methodist Episcopal Church, of which he was a consistent member ever since. He was an earnest worker in the Sabbath School, and always had a pleasant word for all. He was a kind husband, a loving father, and a good neighbor.

He was perfectly reconciled to die, and said if It was the Lord's will, he was ready to go. A short time before he died, he called his wife and asked her to sing "Oh, when shall I see Jesus?" He was in the ministry for a number of years and was a resident of St. Clair County for 20 years.

He was elected co-Treasurer in 1879, and moved from Osceola to Wheatland, Mo., in 1884 and had lived in Hickory County up to his death. A few hours before his death he looked up and said "I love Jesus," and as long as he could speak, he would say "Praise the Lord."

His remains were laid to rest in the Mt. Zion Cemetery near Quincy, Mo., followed by a large concourse of friends.

PASSED FROM SLEEP INTO ETERNITY

Charles Wonacott, pioneer resident of Bishop, passed into rest Sunday night at the home of his daughter Mrs. Vangie Robinson, in San Luis Obispo, where he had been most of the time during the last two years. He had been visiting his relatives there, and left Sunday morning in company with Chase Bell for the coast city. They reached San Luis about 5 o'clock. Mr. Wonacott was in good spirits and apparent good health, and stayed up until about 10 o'clock talking to the family. A small grandson (Forrest) who slept with him was undisturbed during the night. When Mrs. Robinson went to call the boy to get ready for school she found that her father had passed from sleep into death, without a sign of struggle or suffering. The coroner's decision was that old age was the cause of death.

Charles William Wonacott was born in Virginia Nov. 8, 1849. And was, therefore, aged 80 years and 9 days at the time of his death. Few would have thought him so far advanced in years, for he retained an unusual appearance of body vigor and health.

He was married to Miss Rachel Huckaby June 16, 1872, in St. Clair County, Missouri. They traveled to Wyoming with relatives, leaving Ft. Scott, Kansas May 2, 1874. After a years stay in that territory they came to Bishop, reaching here in November.

Mr. Wonacott was a carpenter by trade. His first work was in building the one time well known Spencer Store in West Bishop. He built the West Bishop schoolhouse, burned some years ago, and also the one now standing. He also built the town frame schoolhouse now used for city and library purposes, the second schoolhouse at Big Pine, and a number of other structures in the valley. One of his enterprises was a sawmill on the Owens River, and he experimented with the plan of rafting material down the river but with unsatisfactory results.

With the growth of Tonopah he went to that camp, and after carrying on his trade for a short time, he went into the undertaking business with Frank J. Cavanaugh, to whom he sold out to a few years since. (Note, he opened the undertaking business with George Hall. He became a partner with Frank Cavanaugh after 1912. He sold his interest in the business to Mary Cavanaugh in 1920).

With the sale of his farm property here he retired from active work. Mrs. Wonacott passed on Feb. 1, 1922, when her golden wedding was but a few months away.

Nine children were born to them, two of whom, Frankie E. and Forrest C., died. Those surviving are three daughters and four sons: Mrs. L.J. De Luchi, of Oakland, Mrs. T.R. Robinson, of San Luis Obispo, Mrs. A.O. Adams of Bishop, Don L. Wonacott and Albert W. Wonacott, of Bishop, Harold Wonacott of Vallejo, and Dwight Wonacott[; he was also survived by a number] of grand children and two great grandchildren. Mrs. Emily Huckaby, a sister-in-law resides at Laws. All of his returns from sales of property in Bishop and in Tonopah was deposited in the Inyo County Bank or invested in the Wattersons corporations, and all was swept away in the bank crash.

During his average lifetime of residence among us, Charles Wonacott's reputation was unstained, and his uprightness was unquestioned. Those that knew him feel that while he lived beyond man's allotted time, a fine citizen has been taken away.

His former business associate, Frank J. Cavanaugh, came from Tonopah to conduct his funeral this afternoon. The Elks had charge of the service.

Obituary

Thursday 21 October 1920 [Bishop, CA] Inyo Register

DEATH - CHARLES FORREST WONACOTT - passed away in the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. C.W. Wonacott at about 10:00 last night. He was born in West Bishop 42 years, 25 days ago.

His case has the deepest sympathy of the community, during eleven year of invalidism, fourteen years ago he sustained a severe attack of rheumatism, which left [as] an after effect, a valvular - ___?lerion of the heart. Three years later he was taken with a paralytic stroke of the right side. He never recovered from it, though frequently up and around. His last attack confined him to his bed about three months. His transition from life to death was so easy that those with him knew it only by his changed appearance.

The funeral will occur Saturday afternoon at 2:00 from the family residence. We extend for many friends, condolences to the bereaved relatives, not only for their loss, but for the distressing affliction that for so long cut off the career of a well-liked and upright young man.

24. JOHN RICHARD NEWTON⁵ BELL (ELIZABETH⁴ WONACOTT, RICHARD³, DUNSTAN², JOHN¹) was born 25 Jan 1846 in Pulaski Co., Virginia, USA, and died 03 Jun 1928 in Corvallis, Benton Co., Oregon, USA. He married MARGARET COOK 1868. She was born 15 Dec 1846 in Virginia, USA, and died 15 Jan 1939 in Multnomah Co., Portland, Oregon.

Notes for JOHN RICHARD NEWTON BELL:

The "Human" Mascot ... John Richard Newton Bell (1893-1928)

Sometime after football was introduced at Oregon State, Corvallis' John Richard Newton Bell, a Presbyterian minister and longtime member of the OAC Board of Regents, became the team's most passionate supporter. As things evolved, J.R.N. Bell, as he was known, became the official Oregon State "mascot," and he is so pictured and written about in early school yearbooks. His chief claim to fame was his ritual of marching to the Marys River after each OSU Civil War victory to toss his top hat into the water as a token of celebration. Bell first threw his hat after Oregon State's initial victory over the U of O in 1894. The event grew into one of Corvallis' most anticipated social events and by the 1920s was an established ritual in the community. To honor his devotion to the university in general and to athletics in particular, Oregon State honored Bell in the 1920s by naming its football field, known up to that time informally as "The College Field," Bell Field, a name which stayed until 1951, when Bell Field was replaced by Parker Stadium (now Reser Stadium). Bell Field, located where the Dixon Student Recreational Center is located, was razed in 1953. The last game played there was a freshman Civil War game which the Beavers lost. A Corvallis Gazette-Times newspaper article from March 1922 quotes Bell as saying he became the official mascot of athletics at the college in 1893.

Corvallis Gazette-Times:

Biographical sketch of aged mascot of O.S.A.C. football teams. John Richard Newton Bell was born in Virginia in 1846. Attended Wytheville College. College course broken by service in Confederate army. Taught school after war and married Margaret S. Cook in 1868. Wife taught school while Bell finished college. Studied theology and entered upon first pastorate in 1871. In 1877 arrived in Oregon with $1.00. Earned more by cleaning ditch and cutting cordwood, also worked in harvest field. Attended camp meeting at Rickreall, ordained and assigned to M.E.Church, South, at Ashland. Later served as Presiding Elder. In 1855 joined Presbyterian Church. Purchased Roseburg Review; in 1886 founded Compendium, now Oregon Teachers' Journal; owned and combined "West Side" of Independence and "Democrat" of Monmouth. Clerk of State R.R. Commission under Governor Pennoyer. During all these activities he preached every Sunday.

Later pastor at Baker City and in California. "Best known preacher in Oregon." Preached in hundreds of pulpits outside his regular pastorates. "Marrying parson." Married almost one thousand couples, often including three generation of same family. In later years official mascot of O.S.A.C. football teams; always threw his hat into the river when State defeated University of Oregon. Living children are: Mrs. Solon Shedd, Mrs. Ora Hedengren, Mrs. Xenia Richardson, Mrs. S.E. Rogers, Lloyd Bell. Fifty years Grand Chaplain of Masonic Order.

Excerpt from "Old Mammoth" by Adele Reed, c1982, p 90ff

"Another herd of milk cows (Holsteins) were moved up from Bishop in the early '20s; the A.W. Wonacotts, Bob and Carrie and their family, moved into the old Summers cabin at Laurel. In exchange for use of the pastures, Bob took care of the Summers' cows with his own and delivered milk to the hotel. Sometime later the Wonacott Dairy moved to the Jim Watterson property at Hot Creek. The family lived in a cabin just above the meadow. They established a retail route for delivering milk to all the campgrounds at Mammoth and in the Lakes Basin, north to Crestview, and south to Convict Lake and Rock Creek Lodge. When the City of Los Angeles was building the Crowley dam, they delivered milk to the work camp. Throughout our camping years at Mammoth, Bob was our cheerful milkman. He could be depended on for a smile, a greeting, a joke, and a bit of news."

Obituary

Thursday 22 August 1974 Inyo Register, p. 26

--

Funeral services were held Aug. 16 for Albert "Bob" Wonacott, 87, of Bishop, following his death Aug. 11, at Inyo County Sanatorium.

The Rev. J. Hackett Johnson of the First Presbyterian Church officiated at the service, held at Brune-Talmage Chapel, Bishop. Burial was in East Line St. cemetery.

Mr. Wonacott was born Oct. 18, 1886 in Calaveras County, Calif., the last in a family of nine brothers and sisters. He was brought to Bishop as a baby from Calaveras County, camping in the high brush near the corner of Main and Willow in 1887.

The Wonacott family operated a ranch on Dixon Lane, a portion of which was provided to the Riverside school district. It was there Bob was educated.

For a time the family moved to Tonopah, New., where Bob was a "swamper," working the freight wagons. He later was licensed [as] a mortician and worked with the Wonacott and Cavanaugh Funeral Home in Tonopah, moving back to California and settling in Round Valley on a ranch in 1912. He began dairy operation about 1914. Every summer the dairy was moved to the Mammoth area and milk provided to guests of Charlie Summers at the Mammoth Hotel. It was here that Bob developed quite a business in making the rounds of the "tourist camps," dipping up a quart of milk from 10 gallon cans for a dime. The dairy was operated until 1959, at which time it was located on North Highway US 395, Bishop.

He is survived by wife Carrie; a son, Thomas A. Wonacott of Bishop, and Archie Allison, who was raised by Bob and Carrie Wonacott; two daughters, Mrs. Barbara Dawson of Bishop, and Mrs. Thelma Brown of Gardnerville, Nevada; granddaughters Nita Evans and Leslie Manzonie of Bishop; three grandsons in Gardnerville, Nevada, two sons and a granddaughter in Los Alamitos; 13 great grandchildren.

Pallbearers were Charley Olds, George Brown, Don Tibbals, Richie Conway, Jack Alexander, Willie Smith, Lester Cline, Jim Heavens, Bill Reed, Lee Summers, Joe Hird, [and] Denton Woods.

Those wishing to honor the memory of Bob Wonacott may contribute to the Inyo County Sanatorium Fund.
