Irene Winacott

Irene Alice Winacott January 16, 1918 December 17, 2008 It is with deep sadness that the family of Irene Winacott announces her passing on Wednesday, December 17th at the age of 92 years. She passed peacefully at the Rosetown Union Hospital with her daughter Carol by her side. Irene, or Great as she was known by her family is lovingly remembered by her daughter, Carol Skelton (Noel) of Harris; grandchildren, Terri Harris of Regina, Ted Skelton of Wetaskiwin and Mark Skelton (Nadeen) of Bonnyville; great-granddaughters Wendi Harris, Tenille Harris, Victoria Skelton, Shelby Skelton and Shae Skelton; and several nieces and nephews. Irene was predeceased by her husband, Gordon Winacott in 1983; her parents, John and Annie Berglund; four brothers and two sisters. Irene was born on her parent's farm near Struan, SK and attended school at Struan and Wilson Lake. In 1945 she married Gordon Winacott of Asquith. They spent the first years of their marriage in Alberta where Gordon worked on several major construction projects. When their only child Carol was ready to begin school they returned to Saskatchewan and began farming in the Kensmith District north of Biggar. In 1975, Gordon and Irene sold the farm and retired to Harris to be near Carol's young family. Both were active in the community, enjoying social outings at the New Horizons Hall, golfing and supporting all of the sporting and musical activities of their grandchildren. They loved going to the boy's hockey games, attending 4-H events and music festivals and made many friends along the way. Grandma and Grandpa Winacott were simply an everyday fixture in our lives. After Gordon's passing, Irene remained in Harris. Great's little home became a favourite visiting place for her greatgranddaughters where they enjoyed playing games of Scrabble, checkers, cards or helping Great put her puzzles together. She would always make sure she had cookies, buns or lemon loaf on hand for the girls to enjoy. When Victoria began school in Harris, Great looked after her every day after school and there was nothing she enjoyed more. They were very special times for her. Irene was an avid coin and stamp collector, a hobby passed on to her from her father. She also loved jigsaw puzzles and word games and spent time each day doing both. She was a wonderful gardener and took immense pride and enjoyment from her garden produce and her flowerbeds. To this day a Virginia Creeper and rose bush cut from original plants at the Struan homestead flourish each year at Carol's home. She very much enjoyed soft spring and summer days on her little patio enjoying an iced tea, her garden and the company of her friends. Irene loved spending cold winter evenings playing cards with her friends and enjoying a glass of wine or taking a bus trip to visit a local casino. She was also a huge fan of the Saskatchewan Roughriders and would watch all of the televised football games...even if the reception on her television wasn't perfect! Irene was also interested in history. Not only did she keep photo albums and hundreds of mementos from occasions over the years but she documented her family history very well. Her official research is supplemented by diaries and literally hundreds of pages of notes and tape recordings she made telling stories from her youth and chronically daily events. Irene was tremendously proud of her grandchildren and great grandchildren and loved to talk about them. But there was perhaps no prouder mother in Canada then when her daughter Carol was elected to Parliament and then appointed to the federal Cabinet. She religiously watched the news, Question Period and all of the political shows on television, clipped and scrapbooked any mention of Carol in the newspapers and could offer stinging political comment at a moment's notice. Irene struggled with loss of mobility and pain due to deterioration of her hips in the last few years. Although her passing has come suddenly and our family is at a loss without Great, we are thankful that she is now free of pain. No one will ever be as Great as our mom, grandma and great grandma. At Irene's request a private graveside service was held with the family present on Sunday, December 21st in Harris. Tokens of remembrance may be made to the Heart and Stroke Foundation. Clements Rosetown Funeral Home entrusted with the arrangements.

Child of GORDON WINACOTT and IRENE BERGLUND is:

- i. CAROL⁴ WINACOTT, m. NOEL SKELTON.
